NEXT:

RESTRAIN - FP ADJ BASE MONTHLY OBLIGATION: If applicable, an adjustment factor is applied against the BASE MONTHLY OBLIGATION combined, if there is a certain number of overnights. A parent with over 205 overnights will have $0.00 in the adjusted base monthly obligation. PERSONS*

OUT OF HOME CHILD SUP:
 The court-ordered monthly child support actually paid for qualified out-of-home children for each parent excluding children on this case. This is for current support only.

PERCENTAGE SHARE OF INCOME: Percentage share of income is system-calculated. After deductions and additions to the gross monthly income for both parents, the Percentage Share of Combined Incomes is calculated.

PERCENTAGE OF OVERNIGHTS: Percentage share of overnights is system-calculated. Each parent's overnights is divided by 365 for a percentage share of overnights.

ADJ BASE MONTHLY OBLIGATION: If applicable, an adjustment factor is applied against the BASE MONTHLY OBLIGATION combined, if there is a certain number of overnights. A parent with over 205 overnights will have $0.00 in the adjusted base monthly obligation.

#IN-HOME CHLD NOT ON CASE:
 The number of qualified in-home children excluding the children on this case.

BASE MONTHLY OBLIGATION: Adjusted Combined Gross Income (ACGI) is based on the number of children, prorated to the Father and Mother based on their shared incomes. If the ACGI Income is greater than $15,000, the maximum obligation amount will be calculated by OSIS here. If the Number of Children exceeds 6, the amount for 6 children will be used.
